Requirements:	Kingsley Special Academy is looking to recruit a number of Lunchtime Supervisors to assist our amazing pupils. We invite caring, resourceful individuals to join our experienced team who are keen to provide encouragement and give confidence to our pupils. Applicants should appreciate the challenge of understanding a child's unique presentation and be able to remain calm in difficult situations. We would hope that applicants have the ability to initiate games contributing to constructive play opportunities. If you believe you have the experience and wish to contribute to providing a secure, happy environment for our pupils, then please apply.
Description:	Kingsley Special Academy is a part of Kingsley Learning Foundation which includes Red Kite Academy in Corby. It is a Community Special School providing education, therapy, support and facilities for children aged four years to eleven years who have physical, medical, sensory, learning and communication difficulties. Many of our children have presentations on the autistic spectrum. The school can provide for 156 pupils who have an Education and Health Care Plan.
